-Areas of Competition: Like the Olympics, each contestant will receive a score from 1-10 in each of three categories. Each category accounts for 1/3 of each contestant's total score. The areas of competition are the following:

-Interview: The National Pageant's interview will be a five-minute press conference style interview. Each contestant will send 2 topics that she would like to discuss and the entire interview is based around these two topics. Such topics may include, but are not limited to: specific community service that contestant is involved, hobbies, honors, awards, fashion, again...YOU DEFINE PERFECTION. The interview outfit is anything that you think works well and accompanies your 2 topic selection, such as an interview suit, dress, uniform you wear at one of your topics, the list and options go on!

-Swimsuit: One piece, two piece, solid, print, wraps are allowed, any shoe, sandal, heel, or flip flop is allowed. Be modern, hip, current, fun, remember, YOU define perfection.

-Evening Gown: An evening gown of your personal choosing. As you pursue AMERICA'S PERFECT JR. TEEN, TEEN, and MISS, remember: you are creating a brand: YOURSELF!
